CAA ACTION ENDORSEMENT 008

SUPPORTING Naomi Levin FOR U.S. Congress of New York District 10

The Chinese American Alliance Action (CAA-Action), a National non-government organization headquartered in Chicago, Illinois, with grassroots members of Chinese Americans across the United States, is proud to announce that we endorse Ms. Naomi Levin for U.S. Congress of New York District 10.

CAA-Action promotes common sense values of traditional American families and safeguards the right of equal protection with an emphasis on Chinese and Asian American communities to foster dialogue among all Americans. We members of CAA-Action believe in hard-work, education, and the preservation of law and order. We believe that those who work hard will always be rewarded beyond their aspirations. Ms. Levin represents these values, and so CAA-Action believes that Ms. Levin is the most qualified to represent and represent the people of the West Side of Manhattan and parts of Brooklyn.

Ms. Levin is a connected, grounded, and impassioned engineer who has been working in emerging technology and whose vision reflects the values of our community. Her commitment to public duty, respect for civil liberty, along with her skilled focus on the needs of our district will empower our community, ensure our safety, and enable local businesses to succeed. Ms. Levin understands that education is the best tool for upward mobility in our country and she is dedicated to providing the best educational opportunities for our children. By expanding charter schools and increasing STEM (science technology engineering and math) programs, Ms. Levin's policies will prepare our children to compete and succeed in the global economic community. Through facilitating the development of an educational system around the growing needs of business, she will foster a more skilled and motivated generation. Ms. Levin aims to secure legislation that places our city and country's safety as a top priority. Her dedication to preventing the Mission of CAA Action is to promote the conservative values of traditional American families. We aim to safeguard the right to equal protection, with an emphasis on Chinese and Asian American communities. We also strive to foster dialogue and ensure fair opportunities among all Americans.

Iranian Regime from becoming a nuclear power and her firm support of sound foreign policy assure us that she cares for the freedom and continuity of the free world. Additionally, Ms. Levin demonstrates her understanding of the economic needs of our community by advocating for less burdensome and demotivating taxation. Through reforming unnecessarily burdensome regulations she will expand business and technology opportunities for Americans. These changes and ideals correspond exactly with our community's goals and aspirations for both the present and the future. We are delighted to see Ms. Levin passion for the values we share, and are eager to see the improvements her ideas will bring to this state.

Following the endorsement, CAA-Action members will organize fundraising and volunteering activities to support Ms. Levin's campaign. We are proud to stand behind Ms. Levin, and we encourage all, CAA-Action members or not, to help donate and support Ms. Levin's campaign to create a better and brighter future for our country.

Sincerely

Andy Zhang
